WHereas, notwithstanding the repeated Notices, which have been published in the London Gazette, the Merchants and other Persons having Effects in any of the several Islands or Places restored to the Crowns of France and Spain by the late Treaty of Peace and having a Right to send Ships thither to bring away such Effects, pursuant to the 8th and 19th Articles of that Treaty, do nevertheless neglect to deliver into the Office of the Earl of Halifax, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, a Designation in Writing, signed by their Names, of the Ships proposed to be sent by all and every of them, either jointly or separately, with the Name and Tonnage of each, and the Time within which they are intended to sail to any of the said Islands or Places: And whereas it is now become necessary to fix a certain Time, beyond which the Applications to be made by His Majesty's said Secretary of State to the Courts of France and Spain, for the Delivery of the respective Passports, agreed by the said Treaty to be given to the said Vessels, cannot be delayed, without Danger of much Prejudice, and Inconvenience, to the Interests of the Concerned; It is therefore hereby proposed and desired, that the said Merchants and others, would deliver in the Designations of their respective ships, in the Manner above described, to the Office of His Majesty's said Secretary of State, before the 14th Day of February next; and they are further to take Notice, that no Regard will be had to any Applications of that Nature, which may be delivered into the said Office, after the said 14th Day of February, except in such Cases where the said Notice shall appear to have been delayed by some unavoidable Circumstance or Accident.

Genoa, January 7. The Plague having broke out, and raging violently at Spalatro, the Magistrates of Health of this City have this Day resolved, that all Vessels coming from the Coast of Dalmatia shall perform a Quarantine of 60 Days, after having been sent to Porto Spetia, to lye there Ten Days, in Order to air the Vessel and Goods.

Venice, January 6. This Government has received Advices from Dalmatia, that the Plague broke out in the Suburbs of Spalatro, about the 23d of December, supposed to be brought thither by some Contraband Hides. The last Accounts say, that about Eighty Persons had died of it; and that the General of Dalmatia was arrived there, and had inclosed the Suburbs, and prevented any Person's coming out of those Precincts, by a constant Guard. The great Care and Precautions taken by this Republick on these Occasions, it is hoped, will prevent the Disease from dilating itself farther in this Country.

Turin, January 7. The Marquis de St. Germain, whom the King of Sardinia had lately appointed his Minister in the Department of Foreign Affairs, died here a few Days ago.

Ratisbon, January 9. The Imperial Ministers have at last, by Order of their Court, returned the Minister of Salzbourg an Answer to the Remonstrance which he made to them in the Name of the College of Princes, concerning the Participation which they require in the Affair of the Election. This Answer, which the Minister of Salzbourg has just communicated to the other Princes Ministers, is as follows: "That His Imperial Majesty was then employed in "finding out an Expedient for the Content and Con- "solation of the Princes of the Empire, relating to "the Election of a King of the Romans, without "Prejudice to the Electoral College, and conse- "quently of such a Nature as to avoid all Collision "between them."

The Ministers of the Princes have desired the Minister of Salzbourg to use, at this Juncture, his utmost Endeavours, that the Expedient, which his Imperial Majesty intends to propose, may be put in Execution in Time; and the said Minister has assured them, he has already solicited the Con-Commissary very strongly, that this Affair may be decided before the Opening of the Electoral Diet.

Last Sunday Count Toering, Minister from the Elector of Saxony, and the Canons attached to Prince Clement of Saxony, received Letters from his Royal Highness, informing them that the Pope had at last decided the Cause, so long depending at Rome between him and Count Oultremont, in Favour of the Latter: That he was, however, equally obliged to those, who had been his Friends, and should be ever ready to give them Marks of his Favour. Bonn, January 12. The States, that were aſſembled here, broke up Yeſterday, after having granted the Elector a Subſidy of One Hundred and Sixty-ſix Thouſand Crowns. This Morning, about Six o'Clock, the Elector ſet out for Munſter, to aſſiſt at the Aſſembly of the States there, as ſeveral very important Points, which require his Electoral Highneſs's Preſence, are to be regulated; however, as the Court is preparing magnificent Equipages for Frankfort, it is generally believed his Electoral Highneſs will return in leſs than ſix Weeks.

Tranſlation of the Information received the 5th of January 1764, from the Magiſtracy of the Health Office, by John Udney, Eſq; His Britannick Majeſty's Conſul at Venice.

OUR Magiſtracy enjoyed a perfect State of Tranquility, after having received repeated and certain Notices, that at Abbadeſſa Caſtle, ſince the two Accidents formerly related, nothing new had happened to cauſe any Suſpicion; but, on the contrary, that the ſurviving Perſons of that infected Family were in compleat Poſſeſſion of their Health; when, on a ſudden, theſe Days paſt, we received the diſagreeable News, that in the grand Borough of Spalatro, for ſome Time, Diſtempers had ſubſiſted, accompanied with acute Fevers and the Meaſles. Finally, on the 19th of December laſt, on the Examination which was made on Four Corpſes, of the Number of the Ten Perſons, that died on that Day, ſuch ſtrong Tokens of a contagious Diſtemper were diſcovered in the moſt ſuſpicious Parts of the ſaid Corpſes, that the Doctors of Phyſick reſiding there made no Scruple to give it that Determination. Upon the firſt Notice thereof, his Excellency the Proveditor General Michiel departed from Zara, and repaired to the Place, provided with the proper Authority for doing every Thing neceſſary in an Emergency of ſo very great Importance.

By reaſon of the already related Accidents which happened at Abbadeſſa Caſtle, Dalmatia, together with all the adjacent Iſlands, is ſubjected to 40 Days Quarantine, as you well know; ſo that now all that remains to be done, is in Addition to the provided Meaſures hitherto taken, to apply others ſufficient for Security againſt ſo great an Emergency. Of what further Accounts we may receive from the General after he ſhall have made the ſtricteſt Examination on the Spot, we ſhall immediately give you the fulleſt Information, as is requiſite in a Matter of ſo much Importance, and to give you a freſh Proof of our conſtant and ſincere Correſpondency.
